An issue with such a system is that a user must manually strip the leaves and caps of a cannabis plant and throw them away. By manually stripping the plants, valuable plant material is wasted and may end up in a landfill. As the demand for pharmaceutical grade cannabis increases, the current system of growing and harvesting cannabis plants will become increasingly unworkable.My birthdate may not be very unusual, but I think it is just as important! So, you can call me 9 (9!); after all, I love the number 9. What are your birthdays? They are very important to me! And, believe it or not, I celebrate all my birthdays on the 9th of the month. I don't know why (well, I do know why), but the 9th for me has a special status. Why? Read on to find out more. Two years ago, I wrote a post where I shared my birthday this year: 9th December. I ended the year by thanking those who had commented on my post and revealed their birthdates. It was then that I realised that there are nine people here on my blog who know my birthday! If I know yours, too, can you guess my birthday? It's a difficult question, isn't it? Don't you think it's time to throw in your hand? No, wait! If you're afraid to give it a go, you can take our guesswork a step further and have a little peek at my birthdate. The great secret If you give it a go, you may discover that a few of you have guessed it already! I know that's not just because of our connections to each other. It's because you must have read my post about my birthday! Anyway, if you
